DAILY BOAT TO HILO FORECAST

Big Island Metropolis Twenty-Five Years Behind Honolulu, Says Paxton.

Hawaii Herald.—"Hilo is now about twenty-five years behind Honolulu, but it will only take about ten years for this town to catch up."

This was said to the Herald last week by Mr. Elmer E. Paxton, of the Honolulu firm of Alexander and Baldwin. Some exception may be made to the remark but those who knew Honolulu a quarter of a century ago will agree with Mr. Paxton, also that Hilo is in a position to catch up pretty quickly. Mr. Paxton said further: "Within fifteen years I expect to see a steamer running daily between Honolulu and Hilo, instead of twice a week."

Mr. Paxton, accompanied by his wife, is now at the Volcano House where he likes to spend a quiet week or two whenever he gets the chance to take a rest. Speaking of the Hilo railroad extension he said the line to Hakalau would be completed and open for traffic sooner than had been anticipated. It was surprising what an amount of work had been done and it was only the non-completion of the bridge at Hilo that delayed the laying of the rails. It was a difficult piece of work but, as soon as finished, the heavy material needed in construction could be carried along from this end. "Conditions," said Mr. Paxton, "are favorable for the construction of the road right through to the end of the Hamakua coast without the work stopping at Hakalau. What is needed to help us is the moral support of the Hilo community and that is all we are asking. I can see that Hilo has grown since I was here last year and there are many good improvements. One thing that strikes me as strange is the absence of a street car line for it is such a necessity in Honolulu."

Mr. Paxton said he could see how easy it would be for Hilo to grow with the opening of the back country, the completion of the breakwater and local improvements as they were needed. And Mr. Paxton is one of those men in Honolulu who can help Hilo grow and be a good friend to the town.

DAVID THOM HAS PASSED THE POST

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—David Thom, a true sportsman of the old school and a man of sterling integrity and genial disposition, passed away in Berkeley, Cal., last Tuesday after an illness of about two weeks.

"Uncle Dave" had been located in San Francisco for over thirty years and in that time had acquired a reputation as a gunsmith of skill and artistic resources that made him known, either personally or by correspondence, to thousands of sportsmen of the Pacific Coast from Alaska to the Isthmus.

Aside from his standing as a gunsmith of rare abilities he was noted for a gentle and pleasing personality that made him popular with everyone who met him. The last earthly duties of family and friends on behalf of the departed took place at the Masonic Temple in Berkeley on Thursday afternoon under the auspices of Durant Lodge, No. 268, F. & A. M. There was present a large attendance of friends and sportsmen.

BRITISH FIGHTERS COMING.

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—A delegation of English fighters will soon arrive in this country. The scrappers who are coming over are Jim Driscoll, Owen Moran, Freddie Welsh, Johnny Summers, "Young Josephs," Digger Stanley and possibly Ian Hague, the big heavy-weight. With the exception of "Young Josephs" and Hague, all of the others have appeared here before and made good in the bouts they fought. Driscoll and Moran will try and get on a match with Abe Attell, while Welsh will make an effort to induce Battling Nelson to fight him for the lightweight championship title.

"As a rule," said the cynic, "one may reckon the number of his true friends on the fingers of one hand."
"Well," answered the good-natured person, "anybody who counts up his friendships the same as he does his money doesn't deserve any more."

Now that we found one of the poles it ought to be easy to locate the other, which is directly opposite.
